In English and Guided Reading we will be reading books called “Kensuke’s Kingdom” by the author Michael Morpurgo and “Street Child” by Berlie Doherty. We will be using these books in our writing to develop our English writing skills and our Reading comprehension skills.

Our topic this term is called ‘Tudors’, through which the children will be learning all about the Tudor period in British History. We will study this topic until February half-term.

In Art, our focus will be on using oil paints to create paintings of Tudor Kings (such as Henry VIII) and Queens (such as Elizabeth I).

In History, children will be learning about when the Tudor period occurred, the Kings and Queens of this period and also some of the changes that occurred in England during this time period.

In Geography, we will be learning about the location of some of the main Tudor towns and cities, and how the UK has changed from this time period to the present day.

Our Science topic this half-term is called ‘Healthy Bodies’.

Homework:

We will continue to be set homework online for Bedrock, Maths and Spelling each Monday, which needs to be completed by Friday.

For Maths and Spelling, there are spelling games to complete. For Bedrock, the children need to complete 20 points of learning.

Banded books will continue to be checked weekly and replaced once completed. Please ensure you child brings their banded book into school each day, and try to read with your children at home 3 times a week. Children also have access to electronic books through the Reading Buddy website.
